What's on stage in Dublin?

Hello and thank you for calling “What’s on Stage in Dublin”. Find out about great Irish entertainment on stage this week – musicals, plays, operas, concerts, stand-up comedy and more. For information on future events, please visit our homepage at www.whatsonstage-dublin.ie.

Show 1: Rhythm of the Dance

This great live show represents a new form of Irish entertainment, with world-champion dancers, a traditional Irish band and the amazing Young Irish Singers. This three-hour show, which brings together traditional and modern dance styles, can be seen on Friday at the Olympia Theatre.

Ticket prices are € 25 for adults and € 19.50 for children twelve or younger. Seating for this event is limited, so please book as soon as possible.

Show 2: Declan O’Rourke

One of Ireland’s most famous singer-songwriters, O’Rourke is a folk singer of great talent. He has a career that many musicians his age would be jealous of. He created popular songs that have been recorded by artists such as Snow Patrol and the Celtic Tenors. He was on stage with musicians like Bob Geldof and Bono from U2. It is sometimes said that his song “Galileo” is possibly the greatest song of the last 30 years. Come and listen to the magic of his songs and words.

Declan O’Rourke will be performing live at the Pavilion Theatre on Tuesday at 7:00 pm and on Thursday at 8:00 pm; all tickets are € 20.

Show 3: Des Bishop

Bishop was born in Queens in New York City. At the age of 14 he moved to County Wexford in Ireland. Since then he has become one of the top comedians in Ireland. Bishop hosts the International Comedy Club in Dublin. He motivates the Irish to learn their own native Gaelic language, and he also has a talent for performing the regional Irish dialects. He loves to compare his birth country America to that of his new home in Ireland.

Come and see Mr Bishop at the Gaiety Theatre on Saturday at 7:00 pm and at 10:00 pm. Tickets are € 15. Because of the content of the show, no one under 18 years of age will be allowed to see it.

We hope to see you at one of our shows in the near future.
