

English 9a Fe

Dear class 9a!

I hope you passed good Easter holidays and enjoyed the sun and are now back to “school“ with loads of strength and energy!

This week’s work:

Watch this film about Can who needs money and wants to find a job.

<https://www.planet-schule.de/wissenspool/flirt-english/inhalt/sendungen-1-staffel/getting-a-job.html>

You don’t need printed versions – copy the lists.

Your tasks for this week and next week (Planet Schule, Flirt English, WDR 2015):

Getting a Job

Vocabulary - What is the meaning of...?

Which words do you already know? Translate the words from the film into German.

If you don’t know the word use a dictionary.

hard
punctual
before
quick
travel-agency
(to) answer, answered, answered
reservation
duty
during

secondly
surprise
skint
(to) pay, paid, paid
(to) cost, cost, cost
fortune
(to) weigh, weighed, weighed
juicer
(to) keep, kept, kept
(to) call, called, called
part-time
(to) recommend, recommended, recommended application
seat
nervous
confidence
necessary
detail
juicer
first name
(to) expect, expected, expected
detail
(to) ask, asked, asked
travel-agency
good afternoon
winner
work

WRITING Now tell the story. The pictures and sentences can help you. Use linking phrases (book p. 172)

Getting a Job

Can is skint.

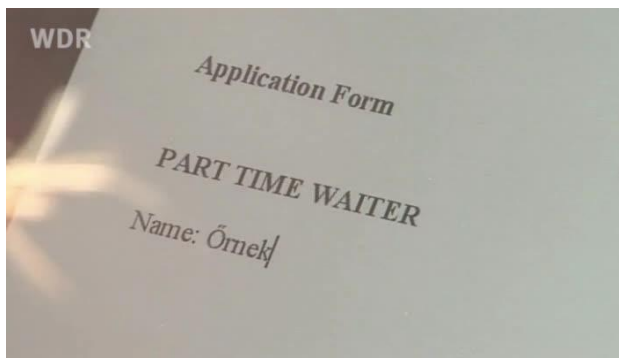

Can needs some money.

Can wants a part-time job.

Suzie helps Can to find a job.

Can fills in an application form.

Can prepares for his job interview.

Can applies for a job.

Can works as a waiter in a restaurant.

MORE VOCABULARY: JOBS

Translate the jobs into German.

English	German
baker
beautician
builder
carpenter
computer technician
dental assistant

medical assistant
electrician
florist
joiner
legal assistant
lorry driver
(auto) mechanic
nursery school teacher
painter
postman/-woman
plumber
travel agent
waiter/waitress
baggage handler
bus driver
cashier
cleaner
courier
DJ
gardener
shop assistant

WRITING. Give a description of every job in one or two sentences.

Any questions?
 Contact me
 Mail: uta@b-fechler.de

